Instructions for Civil Court Hearings:

When you appear for your civil hearing please remember the following:

- Please be on time to court.
- Bring with you any supporting documents to justify the claim that was filed, or to help defend yourself against the claim. Documents may include photos, emails, itemized statements, bills, text messages, et.al. All documents must be printed, the Judge will not view any digital images.
- Written statements from third parties are considered hearsay and are not admissible in court. If you require a third party to be present to testify on your behalf you can contact the court about issuing a subpoena. You can serve the subpoena on your own, or have the court serve it for an additional fee.
- If you are the defendant and wish to be present for the hearing you must notify this office at least 7 days prior to the hearing.
- It is not necessary, but as a courtesy try to make contact with the other party to try to reach a settlement before the court date. If you are able to reach a settlement please be advised that the filing fee is non-refundable, and a letter will need to be sent from the plaintiff in order to cancel the hearing.
- If you wish to file a counterclaim it must be filed at least 5 days prior to the original hearing date. There is a filing fee for a counterclaim.
- If a decision is not rendered the day of the hearing you will be notified by mail of the decision within 5 days.
- Each party has the right to appeal the decision within 30 days of the judgement. Appeal instructions are mailed with the judgement notice.
- If you were awarded judgement, and the other party has not satisfied the judgement, there are two further actions that can be taken to try to collect the judgement. You must wait 36 days from the date of the judgement. Depending on the address of the other party you may file an Order of Execution. With this order a constable would go to the property of the other party and levy items to equal the amount of money owed to you. An auction date is set, if people appear to bid on the property then the money is overturned to you. If no one appears then the property will be turned over to you. There is a fee to file this order. If the address is not within the court's jurisdiction, then you may have to file the Order of Execution through the Sheriffs Department for a fee.
- The other action you can take is you can obtain a certified copy of the judgement notice from our office at no charge. You would then take the certified judgement downtown to the Department of Court Records downtown to file a lien against them. Department of Court Records would notify you of the fee upon filing.
- The court is not permitted to give legal advice. If you have legal questions please contact Neighborhood Legal Services at 412-255-6700, or contact Lawyer Referral Service at 412-261-5555.
